

Travel Ambassador Fact Sheet

The Travel Ambassador Program is designed to give an in-depth overview of the travel options in our area. While this program is designed to aid anyone helping travelers in King County, it is an especially valuable tool for social service professionals, resource agencies, accessibility programs and medical professionals.

The Travel Ambassador Training Program includes:

- Reference material
- An interactive DVD
- A presentation of the program
- In-depth information on methods to ensure safe travel for your client or patient which includes; public transit, volunteer services, Medicaid Transportation Brokers, job access programs, senior transportation and more.
- Resources that will enable you to keep up to date as programs and options change
